

Wes Wilkinson, VIC

How did you find out about ergonomics?

Studied it at University as part of engineering – gives engineers an appreciation of human beings!!!

Why a career in ergonomics?

There were very few straight engineering jobs in the mid eighties.

What's been the most interesting project you've worked on?

Solving the coin handling issues for the banking sector associated with the system of work – the system of work is still being used 20+ years later.

What do you do on a typical day?

Get out of bed and walk 25m to work.....decide which hat do you put on for the day: Ergo, engineer, Risk Manager, father, farmer, mentor, club president, volunteer etc.

What do you find most satisfying about your work?

Actually solving real problems and making life easier and more efficient for people.

